

NCFA's FORESTRY DAY IN THE LEGISLATURE MAY 17, 2018 - RALEIGH, NC

The NCFA encourages its members to take the time to support their forestry interests by traveling to Raleigh for Forestry Day in the Legislature. The day starts with a briefing at 9:30 a.m. under the tent set up on the Halifax Mall. NCFA staff will highlight and provide guidance on any bills that may impact forestry, the forest products industry and/or private property rights. Members then meet with their elected officials and invite them back for a luncheon that starts at 11:30 a.m. The dress for this event is business attire. Please complete this information form and fax it back to the NCFA.

I will attend the Forestry Day and will visit the following legislator(s):
